

When Paul went to Corinth he was welcomed by other followers of Jesus, Aquila and Priscilla. Paul used his skills as a tent-maker to help out. He could spread God's work in Corinth because his skills meant he could stay. Acts 18: 1-28

God has given me skills too.
He knows who I will meet and has great plans for the work we will do.